

The Al Haraka Baraka Poem

Let's play, let's play,

Stay active till the end of the day.

Walk, jump and enjoy a good run,

A healthy life will make school seem fun.

With practice and training every day,

You'll begin to feel good and keep illness at bay.

To grow healthy and strong is the right thing to do,

So that others will follow and feel just like you.

To prepare for your future with vigor and zest,

Always striving to do your best.

And keep this commitment towards your health,

For you will be blessed with inner wealth.

An active life will guarantee,

A healthy life for you and me
